Dr. Louis A. Warren.

Dear Sir:-

In Lincoln Lore No. 791 of June 5th 1944. you list fifty contemporary painters of Lincoln portraits.
I have a portrait of Lincoln painted on ivory, this portrait is without beard, and the artist is A. J. DAVIS. Can you give me some information about this artist, and tell me if he is a contemporary painter or not. Any information will be greatly appreciated that you can give me about this artist.

Thanking you in advance for any trouble this may cause you.

I remain

Very truly yours
Charles H. Stokes.

My dear Mr. Stokes:

In our rather extensive file of Lincoln paintings, we find no information whatever about the artist, A. J. Davis.

We will keep your letter before us, however, and if subsequent investigation allows us to identify Mr. Davis, we will be pleased to correspond with you about him.

Very truly yours,

Director
